On the turn Trigger was in front and Big Gun was closing. Withers was droppig back and Bullman was rushing Vulcain through between Withers and the rail. Just as Vulcain was within half a length of IWithers. Turner turned and looked at Bullman. A second or two clapsed. Then Vulcain fell, thrown High Bullman heavily. Whether Turner pulled in on Vulcain with the intention of shutting him off it is difficult to say, but it looked peculiar. Big Gun went of and took the lead, winning easily by two lengths.
